OCTC's Annual Holiday Party

 On January 21, 2005 the Ontonagon County Telephone Company held their annual holiday party at the Candlelight Inn. The event started with a social hour beginning at 6:00 p.m. followed by a delicious dinner.

After dinner the employees, spouses and guest Terry McAllister from HCI enjoyed a game of dart ball. Team 1 consisting of Craig Immonen, Dorothy Sharkey, Bill Lundberg, Jill Borseth, Joe Gertz, Kirsten Nyman, Lowell Padden, & Jim Peterson won the game with three runs. Team 2 (Andy Borseth, Kathy Pattison, Scott Nyman, Terry McAllister, Bruce Roehm, Kayln Lundberg, Dave Danks, Carrie Erickson) had 1 run and Team 3 (Fred Lundberg, Sheri Shafer, Bob Pattison, Sandy Roehm, Eric Erickson, Marie Danks, Joe Sharkey, Connie Peterson) had no runs. The evening concluded with dancing & enjoying the music of "Borderline." During one of the band sets, Jill Borseth and Scott Nyman were each invited to take the 'mike' and sing with the band.

Drawings for the centerpieces were won by Denise & Tom Domitrovich, Sheri Shafer, Carrie & Eric Erickson, and Jill & Andy Borseth.

OCTC to Install New IP Office Communications Platform at OMH

OCTC employees Craig Immonen and Bill Lundberg attended classes held by Badger Communications in LaCrosse, Wisconsin during the week of Feb. 21, 2005. The training was in conjunction with a new telephone system that will be installed at the Ontonagon Memorial Hospital.

"The IP-based system is the latest in technology and will provide state of the art communications for the hospital," said Network Manager Fred Lundberg. "We are looking forward to this opportunity and appreciate the confidence Ontonagon Memorial Hospital has given us."
